

Mathematics Department University of Fribourg

Opening

The Department of Mathematics at the University of Fribourg (Switzerland) invites applications for the position of a

Senior Assistant in Algebra

It is part of the duties of the senior assistant to teach 4 hours a week on all levels, mainly in algebra and geometry. An intensive research activity in a domain of algebra such as group theory, algebraic number theory or algebraic geometry is expected. She or he will supervise master theses, coach seminars, and participate in administrative tasks of the department.

The successful candidate must have earned a Ph.D. in mathematics and show strong promise of excellence in research and teaching.

The position starts October 1, 2007, and is limited to 5 years. The candidates are supposed to master French or German and to understand the other language.

Send letter of application, current vita, references and research plan before March 1, 2007.

Send applications to

Ruth Kellerhals
Department of Mathematics
University of Fribourg, Pérolles
CH-1700 Fribourg
Switzerland

Deadline

March 1, 2007

Additional information

Ruth Kellerhals
ruth.kellerhals@unifr.ch